

To alter the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law would be absurd . Please for once let the public have what they want , which is their privacy .
You must realize not everyone can afford the technology to block telemarketing so be fair to all and disregard the lobbyist.

Jim Matthews